

Shari Hofmann had over 15 years of accounts experience in commercial and non-profit grant-based administration before joining the University of Rochester in 2017 where she quickly moved through the ranks in the Department of Surgery- Supportive Care in Cancer division. She attended her first NCURA Regional II meeting in 2022 and through this self-development has found a career path previously unknown to her.

